

TRANSFORMING INDIA

Next revolution in providing
AI manpower to the world

Girijananda Chowdhury Institute of Management and Technology

– Guwahati (GIMT- Guwahati) under its Research promotion initiatives for higher learning has joined the nation wide initiative on “Artificial Intelligence and Deep learning , skilling and Research” approved by the Royal Academy of Engineering, UK.

University College, London , Brunel University and Bennett University, India are Collaborators of the projects. The All India council of Technical Education (AICTE) has recommended the project to be associated with all its 10,000 approved institute in India.

GIMT-Guwahati as one of the 10 Collaborators of the initiative aims at being a part of the nationwide revolution of transforming India in providing AI manpower to the world.

For details visit www.leadingindia.in